

MULTIPLE AUTHORS

Should a work be written by two or more authors, please note this amendment to our General Terms and Conditions and follow the instructions below.

1. Please choose ONE person who would represent all co-authors in terms of legal issues during the whole publishing process. This Representative must accept our General Terms and Conditions on behalf of all co-authors. Not more than 2 additional authors are allowed. IMPORTANT: All co-authors must have personally and explicitly declared their approval for the publication and the applicable terms and conditions, which would have been transmitted by the Representative.
2. Only the Representative shall provide his/her account details for the purpose of receiving the complete amount of royalty commission. Likewise, the Representative is provided with an electronic version of the publication which he agrees to transmit to all co-authors.
3. After registering and logging into the publisher's online interface, the Representative has the possibility to name the main author and up to 2 co-authors.